“ Rich was my childhood friend from concord ca. We had some great times together as teenagers. Including camping , skiing, fishing and cruising. He was in my wedding party and made that day special for me and my wife. We fell out of touch over the last 30 years but often I thought of Rich and the memories always brought me a smile . Rest In Peace my friend you are forever in my heart

“ Richard was a good friend. We shared office space in San Francisco at Club 573 on Mission St. Richard really knew about getting ink on paper as he called it. He did a lot of that for me. He won awards for getting print jobs done for me. We spent most of our time together at work but we also spent time together away from work. One afternoon at the office around 4:30 one of us said "let's go to Las Vegas". Just like that we booked a room at the Luxor, booked flights on Southwest and got down there by about 7:00 that evening. We went fishing together and caught fish. Richard came up to Colfax one Christmas and spent a few days because we were snowed in. My friends and family knew Richard. My wife Georgann was especially fond of him. Richard and I last texted each other last June. I had sent pictures of a big catfish I had caught and with some trout photos. Sometimes I sent the same photos over and over claiming I had just caught them. It's really sad to know Richard won't be coming up to visit. He was always welcome. Goodbye my friend.

“ Very sorry to lose such a wonderful man from this life, but we'll see you again one day dear Richard. It was so wonderful to see you and touch base last year. Will always remember you big as life. May you rest in peace and comfort.

“ I had many good nights with 'Ricky Red' (as was my nickname for him) in the Draft House. I'm not sure any of us understood how profoundly the passing of his father affected him. He was a good man with a great sense of humor and I'll personally miss him. God's Speed to you Ricky Red - you are and will be missed. I expect to see you again one day.
