Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Man 18 years working with you Yando has been a pleasure. You were a ray of sunshine every morning with so many fabulous songs. To " I put your picture away" to the last " Bringing in those dang sheep". I still hear you walking and singing down the halls calling people other people's name or just "HEY LADY". You have touched some many lives with your knowledge and gave them encouragement to grow. You will forever be missed in my family and will always be remembered. RIH 6/6/2020....

“ Many good memories over the last 55 years and our trips to Vegas were better when you and Mary would meet us at the GV Buffet. Lots of laughs. I imagine you've already rearranged the furniture around the Pearly Gates for the better. I'll miss you. Richard (brother-in-law)

“ "BRINGING IN THE SHEEP".....That was the song i heard every morning as you walk down the hall. You were truly a great soul. I am honored to have been around you and have learned so many things. You always told me to "keep smiling" and that is what i will do. You also taught me to "remember who you are". We all shall meet again....

“ Bob, You will never be forgotten. I will be forever grateful for our friendship and all the knowledge you taught me over the years. We would sit on a sofa together at market and within seconds you knew exactly what they needed to change to make it a top seller. You opened so many doors for me that I never thought would be possible. And the stories, we will all miss the stories. We will even miss hearing them for the 10th time. I look forward to the day we meet again. I will make sure to bring some peanut M&M'S with me. May god bless you and your family in this time of sorrow.
