When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

“ Ron was a great friend for over 35 years. When he lived in La Quinta CA he would be a social director & arrange nightclub outings, ski trips to Big Bear, concerts in Orange County with groups of 15 - 20 people. He would hold video nights at his home & fabulous New Year's Eve Parties with over 100 guests! My late husband & I would stop in Las Vegas (on our way to car shows) & meet up with Ron who knew all the best restaurants & buffets & entertainment venues. I will treasure all the wonderful moments and time spent with a very special man. Ron was loved by everyone who knew him & will be missed greatly.
