

Rosa M Robles

July 23, 1960 - March 24, 2021

Rosa Robles beloved mother, grandma, sister, aunt, cousin and friend.

Rosa Maria Meza Robles, 60 was called by God to begin her new journey in Heaven on March 24, 2021 all while being surrounded by her loved ones.

Rosa was born July 23, 1960 in Juchipila, Zacatecas, Mexico raised in Artesia, California which was her home, then later moved to Las Vegas where she resided for 23 years.

Rosa raised leaders and do-ers, that is a legacy that will live on through her three children and grandchildren. She lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures such as crocheting, watching movies, and chatting on the phone with friends and family. The love Rosa gave made her a remarkable and inspirational woman, she loved to joke around and have fun, it made her happy to see others laugh. She is being missed deeply and as long as we breathe she will be remembered.

Rosa is survived by her three children, Melissa (Lisa), Salvador (Marisela), Tomas; grandchildren, Nathaniel, Brian and Leonardo.

“ Well here we are 3 years since we laid you to rest with our final goodbyes or "see you later". Well a lot is going on but I don't need to fill you in too much as you see it front row and center. I want you to know that I love how you are working through people to get me where I need to be. All this stuff I have been going through only you know why i have to go through it before I get to where my next chapter takes me. Know that not only do I believe you are helping in a way you now have control of. I love you and miss you so much! Love you madrecita chula!

“ Hey momma, missing you doesn't get any easier as the time passes. I think with age comes the understanding of knowing you are not suffering or in pain. So I guess us dealing with your absence knowing you are no longer suffering will be what we hold on to. Yesterday was Easter, 3rd Easter without you to be exact. It just hasn't been the same but I'm sure you see that. We are trying to still continue the little traditions we did have, I guess all in due time. Ill put up some pictures later. I love you and miss you.-Flaca

“ Well 2nd birthday without you and it's still hard not having you here...knowing I'd wake up to your birthday text because you wanted to tell me as soon as you could. I'm trying, I'm really really trying so hard to be in good spirits despite missing your presence. I constantly talk myself out of being sad because I know it won't change anything because I do know you're there with me even though I can't see you, even though I can't feel you and even though I can't hear you. I miss you so much With love, Flaca

“ 2nd Mother's Day without you down and yet I have any more to go....To my mother in Heaven, thank you for loving me and showing me to never give up and always strive for the strength within. I miss your voice, I miss your laugh, I miss your smile, I miss how much you loved me. I'm missing you so much today. I miss you dearly and you'll always be in my heart. I will never get over the pain of losing you. It will remain embedded deep in my heart until I reach the end of my journey here on earth. With love, your princess Flaca

“ Missing you so much, I know you miss us too. Sometimes I feel numb and lost because I can not express the emotions that come over me, when I see your pictures or our memories that come up. I have you in my blood, my heart, my mind, half of my DNA is yours... that's how I know you are with me but sometimes human nature doesn't let that be enough because I cant physically see you, touch you or hear you. That's when I seems to bring the pain out. I love you so much!!!Btw we know you have been guiding us and near us with what's going on. We are well aware, we know you have more control now than here on earth and we Trust you are putting in good word to our Heavenly Father for us. Love you Madrecita, ours truly - Flaca

“ I miss you so much madrecita chula!! I'm doing my best to live life because I am grateful you gave me that, I'm doing my best to not cry all the time when your memories come flooding through my thoughts in my lonely sleepless nights...yes I'm having trouble sometimes but I'm doing my best. I don't want you to be worried we are doing ok and we will be ok, like you sent in your message "everything will be ok" I have and get the biggest headaches and I know you would tell me to rest and you wouldn't want me to cry...but there have been those rough days. I just miss you so much, your little chuckle, your response "nice" to simple gestures...your "aye que se quede" if something was pricey... I miss it...I picture you saying it and I smile I will always keep your memories alive... I love you

“ It's been 2 months today since you went home and I still miss you, I know you're with me because everyday I see the little signs....I do my best to keep myself open minded to see those signs. I know you know I miss you and I know you miss me too. I have my moments but I'm trying my best to not be sad and live my life becauseI know that's what you would want, it's not easy but I'm trying.Brian's graduating 8th grade and I know if you were here you'd be there...I know you'll be there in spirit! Love your beautiful chaparrita

“ This years a little different, (pause, take a deep breath) a little different? Who am I kidding...losing a mother is a pain that cannot be described in words. So as I lay here missing you it just brings an enduring sadness to know that I don't have you here anymore, it's just not like it was before. I think of how hard life was for you and how you never gave up, you showed me to be strong and stand my ground no matter who was around. These things you instilled in me just fill me up with pride knowing that because of this you'll always be by my side. I know how you love me so, yet I feel I love you that much more. You always said you did your best, and for that I am grateful, so you can have sweet peace in eternal rest. Happy Mother's Day momma, - flaca

“ Rosa it's so hard to believe that it's already been a month without you here with us. We feel your presence daily, which is so comforting. Thank you for loving me & accepting me. You always supported us with open arms. You were always such a fun & gracious Mother in law. I have so many memories with you that I will forever cherish. And please don't worry about Melissa, you know I will do my very best to comfort her and always remind her how much you loved her & were proud of her. Fly high my beautiful Mother in law No more physical pain or the everyday life things that ensured. God saw you were tired and needed you to rest. You are such a warrior and fight the good fight. I will always admire how strong you were your entire life. Until we meet again XoXo

“ Madrecita, it's been a month today since you went on your journey with our Heavenly Father. I miss you so much, Leo turned 3 and got baptized. I'm sure you witnessed it. You know and see what's been going on, you are free to see what's been heavy on my heart. I prayed and left it in God's hands. We got to see him for a bit. I can not expect for others to have my heart, you've taught me that. I know you were there when I had that moment while we were driving...I could smell your perfume and all of a sudden I had a rush of tears and my shoulders got hot... ..Lisa thinks it was you hugging me because I've been beating myself up because of the issue this last week. She couldn't smell you...she smelled gas because I have been using her car for work but you know that. I felt a sense of relief and joy...Love you with all of my heart and have a good night and thank you.

“ Madrecita, I'm doing my best, today was a rough day but not a day goes by I don't miss you or miss our adventures. I'm not going to lie I'm not looking forward to Mother's day as much as I have constant reminders and it just reopens the wound. I know you are watching over us and I Trust our Heavenly Father has you safe and sound and like Dora told Lisa and I ..."just imagine the beauty your momma is seeing up there with our heavenly Father!" I have to carry that in my heart because I know you are in peace. I love you madrecita chula

“ Our beautiful Prima Rosita linda y querida. I looked up to you like our older sister. I loved when you and your beautiful children would come over and spend time with us. When my dad, your Tio Chuy would come down to visit he would always strive his best to visit you by bus or he and I paying a special visit. I could tell that he absolutely adored you and your beautiful children. We are all so proud of the amazing mommy and grandmother you were on this earth and continue to be from up above. We have all gain a beautiful Angel especially watching over her children and grandchildren. Melissa, Sal, and Tomas, our deepest condolences goes out to you and the Meza family. We know that you will all continue making your beautiful mami proud. Always continue with her legacy. Please always remember that we are here for you. Love you all very much and may God bless you abundantly. Veronica Pilon & Family.

“ Mija is what I also used to call you ❤️ I will never forget when I would answer the phone and it was you, you would say "how is my most beautiful sister in the world". And I would answer aayyy Mija, you say that to all my sisters and we would laughed together. I just want to let you know that it has been a struggle losing you. It has not been the same since you departed to be with our Lord. I know you are in a beautiful place, but it hurts so much. I just have to hold on to that one day we will be reunited. Almost forgot to mentioned thank you for your visit yesterday. I didn't see you as I had a large brim hat on, but Kyle said that when I was washing down the backyard a hummingbird was flying above my head. Immediately I said it's my sister coming to visit us. I will never forget our times together and how we would dance nonstop. One more thing, Please do not worry about your kids, you did a fine job raising them, and we will be watching over them. I love you Hermanita till we meet again. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Momma, I miss you and I am well aware of you visiting constantly and I love it! Thank you and I'm doing my best to be strong for you but I will tell you it's been a bit rough not being able to text everyday like we used to, or talk on the phone to hear your cute little contagious laugh!! I will continue to do right by you and I pray I continue to make you proud. I love you chaparita querida xoxo - Flaca
