

Ruth Mollo

September 13, 1957 - March 3, 2022

Old Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the sun shine warm upon your face, And all the rains fall soft upon your fields, And until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Tribute Wall

“ When the people that light up a room leave us, their loss is heavy. I have tried too many times to count to put my feelings to words.. I cannot, you had a big personality, and your loss will be felt deeply by anyone lucky enough to call you friend or family. I love you Ruth!

“ Oh Ruth, my condolences to your Families, when we last connected and said we missed each other I never thought this would happen. I am so Blessed to have met you in my lifetime, through you I learned so much of myself and others. My friend you will truly be missed.

“ Ruthie, I read once that " Crying is how your eyes speak when your mouth can't explain how broken your heart is." I now know how true those words are. So many memories, hanging out upstairs on 91st St. listening to music and talking for hours, Saturday breakfasts on Clark St., coming up to Vegas and visiting The Boy-A library, you just smiling and handing me a shopping bag and saying take whatever you want. Mostly I remember how sweet a person you were and your beautiful smile, which always seemed to grow wider and brighter when you were doing something for someone else. I love you. Until that time Boy-A, until that time.

“ My dearest, sweet sister, Roo. I have loved you since the day I sat on the stone waiting with Uncle Harry for you to come home. You were the kindest, most loving and unselfish person I have ever known. I remember pushing you and Nancy in your strollers, the cheerio-filled sink, and your view of the world through rose-colored glasses. Your family was the most important thing to you and you loved them and us totally and unconditionally. I miss you terribly and when you died, a piece of my heart went with you. May God hold you forever in His loving arms - His beautiful amazing new angel. Until we meet again

“ Our dearest Ruth, I'll always have the special memories playing Yahtzee on Clark St. Grateful I got to have those few years of getting to know you, all the fun we had living side by side! You are a wonderful sister in-law making me feel at home especially with all the food you cooked! I look back & I am reminded how blessed we all were with your warmth & thoughtfulness you will be missed dearly! God bless you ~ goodbye

“ Ruth, anybody that met you knows that words don't do you justice. Thank you for your friendship, the way you radiated warmth, showed people such kindness, and the way you made me feel important. I hope you know how much you are loved and cherished, because you were and you are and you will be. I miss you, and I am very sorry for the loss, to everyone who knows and loves you too.
