

Sean Joseph Greener Sr

May 10, 1962 - September 15, 2021

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ I never dreamed that our time with you in our life would end so soon. I still try to make sense of it. Our son was just on the cusp of his launch into adulthood, just 13 days from when you went home to Jesus; his move to start his career with Tesla just weeks away. Still I was grateful that you got to see him graduate from high school, I was grateful for all the years you had with him, and I'll always be grateful that you were the man God chose to be his dad. You were the first person I'd met when I moved here back in 2001, you were for many years the only friend I had, you are the person who has been in my life in Las Vegas longer than anyone and I miss you so much. Love takes many many forms, and the love I feel for you ran deep. Watch over our boy, Sean, until we meet again.

“ Sean was best of friends with my brother in high school who we also lost too early. So sorry to hear of his passing. Sending heartfelt condolences and prayers for his family.

“ I loved Sean so much and he knew that from the time he was born when John was stationed in Hawaii. I have so many good memories of Sean and will hold them dear to my heart. Sending you all my love and wishing I could be with you to celebrate a life gone much too soon. Love Aunt Mary Helen
