

Susan Carol Wyatt

August 19, 1948 - September 9, 2017

Susan's Obituary

Susan Carol (von Blomberg) Wyatt, 69, of Las Vegas, passed away September 9, 2017, after developing complications following surgery, in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Susan was born in Hempstead, New York to William and Claire von Blomberg on August 19, 1948. She graduated Uniondale High School in 1966. Susan was a top-performing Sales Representative for many years with AT&T (Quest) and, most recently, Century-Link. Susan was recognized many times over the years for her outstanding sales achievements. She was a devoted fan of 'Judge Judy'.

Susan leaves her loving memories to be cherished by her parents William and Claire; her sons Kenneth and Robert Fox; her daughter and son-in-law Tara and Michael Lewis; her beloved grandchildren Austin and Madison Lewis (Susan was 'Nana' extraordinaire); her sisters Patricia Berger and Gail and her husband Steven Hencken; her niece Jennifer Berger and her great-nephew Ayden; her nephew Christopher Berger; her extended family Mary Dana; Frank Wyatt; Gerry Ball and his daughter Selene; Traci Alexander, Caden, and Ali.

There is no memorial service planned at this time. Family and friends will gather to celebrate Susan at a later date.

We will always carry your memory in our hearts and will miss the cookies at Christmas.