

Susana J Ruiz

June 24, 1932 - March 3, 2021

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go and prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

“ Memory of Mom Lives On Dear Greta and Family, So sorry for your loss. It's sad to say, she's gone and we were just talking about her and my mom few months ago comparing our moms on how they enjoy cleaning and climbing using the chair to reach the top of the shelves. We always tell them, not to do that because one day they might fall and break their fragile bones . But of course, they forget and don't listen. Memories like it remains in our heart. Time heals as we move forward. I am here for you. Love, Ryan
