Native American Prayer

O Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds, and whose breath gives life to all of the world, hear me. I am small and weak. I need your strength and wisdom. Let me walk in beauty and make my eyes behold the red and purple sunset. Make my hands respect the things you have made. Make my ears sharp to hear your voice. Make me wise so that I may understand the things you have taught your people. Let me lean on lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock. I seek strength, not to be greater than my brother, but to fight my greatest enemy myself. Make me always ready to come to you with clean hands and straight eyes. So when life fades as the fading sunset, my spirit may come to you without shame.

“ My papa is in a far better place now. I will miss him . He loved his family so much .. I still feel as if this isn't real like it's some nightmare and I honestly don't know if it will get easier to deal with .. my papa will never sing a song to me again and that is so sad to me .. I love you Papa you can finally rest easy with no more pain .
