God's Garden

God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He knew that you were suffering. He knew that you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw the road getting rough and the hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered 'peace is thine.' He put His arms around you and He lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. If tears could build a stairway, and heartaches could make a lane, we'd walk a path to Heaven and bring you home again.

“ Arlene, you have been in my heart, thoughts and prayers continually. You are such a genuinely kindhearted person and Deborah tells me your daughter was just like you. It's rare to find people that are truly so pure of heart so it breaks mine that you have lost someone so wonderfully special like you. I always look forward to seeing you but am so sorry that it will be under these circumstances. I love you, Arlene.
