A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again."

“ I never thought I would have to say goodbye to you, and to find out a year later that you are gone just hurts my heart. You were so a motivating part of my life for so long, this will be difficult task. My love for you always remained, and even though we were apart, we sustained our mutual love and respect for one another. I will cherish every moment we shared, and forever have you in my heart and soul. The times we had will never be forgotten, I wish I could have seen you again, but I will. My condolences to your entire family. I will miss hearing you calling me on every birthday and holiday wishing your "baby girl" a safe one...I will always love you Thomas

“ West you have touched our lives and hearts in such a special way. You will truly be missed. But know that, when we could not be there with you, our thoughts were with you. We could not be there with you but our Prayers were with you, we could not be there with you but we knew that the LORD is with you every step of this journey home. Our thoughts and Prayers are with the family during this difficult journey. While we could not be there with you Family, our thoughts, Prayers and Love will always be with you. May GOD continue to shine on you and cradle you in your times of need. GOD BLESS!!!!
