A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again."

“ When I was a kid Travis would walk all of us neighborhood kids to The park and back all the time we'd hang out there and watch him skate for hours sometimes. He was always kind and I'll never forget him For creating some of the best childhood memories for all the other kids and me.
