When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

“ We have many memories of Vaughn. I think my favorite one was when he packed up all four of his little doggies and brought them over for us to meet. He was so gentle and so sweet, especially with his favorite one Panini. He would always tell us how he has to get home to get his dogs to the dog park. A perfect representation for the kind of man he was . We really miss him.
