

Vicki Lee Polzin

March 16, 1950 - April 21, 2026

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Vicki was always smiling and her smile would light up the room. She loved animals, especially dogs (the bigger the better) and riding horses. She was very independent. She loved being with family, taking walks and playing euchre. May you know how much you are loved and missed, but you are in God's hands and in good company. May you rest in peace. 🙏

“ Vicki was always smiling. That smile was contagious and lit up a room. She loved visiting, playing euchre, and all animals. She especially loved dogs, the bigger the better, and riding horses. She is in good company now in God's hands. Her memories will live on in our love for her. Rest in peace sis. 🙏 We love you.

“ It is difficult to express the amount of love Vickies' heart held for her family, not to mention her fur babies! Always a pleasant smile and a kind word. She was a family treasure who will be missed beyond words.

“ Vickie Lee loved animals, with a particular affection for dogs. For her, they were loyal, didn't question or demand, and were excellent companions. Vickie was independent, and strong willed. Her passing was too quite and too lonely. She will be missed by her siblings. God Bless her and keep her.

Vicki was always smiling and her beautiful smile lit up the room. She loved her family and animals of all species, but especially her dogs (and riding horses). Seemed she was particularly fond of the big dogs and / or the ones noone else would take. They loved her as much as she loved them. She always had a disposable camera on hand. She loved seeing everyone, visiting, and playing euchre whenever she was home. Now she can play with all of the family waiting for her up in heaven. She had a beautiful soul and will be greatly missed. Rest in peace sis. We love you.
