

Victor Andrew Powe

January 20, 1967 - April 10, 2026

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who neither know victory nor defeat. – President Theodore Roosevelt, “The Man in the Arena”

Tribute Wall

BL

“ Victor and I were together for 4 years. We had pur ups and downs the last 6 months, we went back and forth with eachother, but we always went back to eachother. I have never loved anyone the way I loved him. We may not have been good for eachother but we loved eachother very much. I am just thankful that the last thing we said to eachother I love you, 40 mins before this happened.i miss him more than words can describe. No one will ever compare to him.

Brie Llanos - May 19 at 09:15 AM

TL

“ I met Victor in Jan he a nice cool shy guy laid back . He always dressed to the impress a good support always checked on me . I hate that he passed on my birthday we were going to hang out 😞 if I knew April 3rd would be the last day homie forever in my heart ❤️

Teneshia Lacy - May 08 at 02:15 PM

BL

Victor and I were together for 4 years. I had just talked to him 40 mins before. I am just so thankful I got to spend the night before with him and that we said I love you before we hung up. I miss him so much no one will ever compare to him.

Brie Llanos - May 18 at 11:36 AM