January 30, 1989 - October 16, 2023

Dedicated To V.R.

Do not stand by my grave and weep, I did not die- I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on the ripened grain - I am the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning hush, I am the swift uplifting rusk of quiet birds incircled flight- I am the soft stars that shine at night Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die

Native Prayer

Love, V.B.

“ Nothing prepares you for the pain you feel when you lose your child. My heart aches every day, missing my son Vincent. When I think I've cried all my tears, even more come. I will forever miss you, Vincent! I love you so much, Mom.

“ There is so much I would like to say to you .I know I can't in person ,but I hope you can hear me through some sort of spiritual connection or bond .I love you so much and miss you .it's crazy you don't realize how fast something like this could happen .yet it happens everyday around us. I can't believe we're the same age now it hurts me to know I can't go looking for you and find you anymore. I am sorry I couldn't reach you in enough time and I'm sorry for taking are time for granted .I understand you were going thru alot as is are whole family .so I don't blame you for anything you have done to ease your pain ."pain is something in this realm that makes you feel also a part of are feelings to make us know that this reality is real.As a brother I should of kept up my armor to protect and shield Now your gone and when I see you I cry and kneel .Feeling defeated with no brother to be by my side ,left or right All I have to do now is look to the sky And it's you who now looks down upon me As I live my life Still figuring out how to deal with all this Because it's my bissest loss in my life Just know we all love and miss you and will see you in time Love you brother forever will i always remember you
