I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ *Wow, this is a shock. Virgil was an amazing person, colleague, friend, comworker and most importantly a husband and father. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends for their loss. Do not grieve but be so grateful and joyous to be apart of knowing someone who truly is/was a humble, kind, and a man that several of us that aspired to be like! I will remember the times w have worked together and under his tuteledge and Virgil, I hope to see you soon someday! Cheers with much love and respect! Black cherry sparkling soda and a very nice brandy/scotch to toast! All my best to you and your family. Be happy to have known such a gentleman, who lived his life influencing several others who aspired to be like him! Rest in peace and enjoy the pearly gates and I hope to shoot some hoops with ya!
