Old Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the sun shine warm upon your face, And all the rains fall soft upon your fields, And until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

“ To my good friend Ginger. I just now realize there was this obituary for you. I miss you too this day and there is always something that reminds me of you. Whether it be a movie, a song or something you said. I miss you my friend

“ Ginger, you were the light of many of my days during our friendship! Always there with a smile and your infectious laugh!... I can still hear it! I'm so very happy you received my best friendship blanket and wine glass, they describe you perfectly. ❤️

Your friendship meant so much to me. I will miss you forever! I know you are lighting up Heaven with your smile as I type this!

Love you always!

“ *We'll meet again
Don't know where, don't know when
We all had a good time
And we're sad to see it end
Good luck be with you
You go your way, I'll go mine
So until the next time
It's farewell and not good-bye*

“ It is still such a shock that you are gone. You came and are one of the few people who have visited and stayed with us here in Florida and treated us like family should. My kids loved you so much and you were so kind and loving to me. My husband loved you so much and is devastated over losing you. You were so kind and funny and so much fun and energetic! Just being around you made us all happy. You called and would be able to talk about nothing and anything and would always end the call feeling better. I'm so happy that I got to know you and became part of your family, and I am so sad that you are gone. You'll be missed by everyone who knew you; that's how impactful your energy, soul, and personality was. Love you Ginger!

“ Virginia was such a free spirited, fun loving soul. We went to high school together. Her nuttiness was pivotal to my husband and I meeting in 1979. A group of us girls were walking and she stuck her thumb out. My hubby stopped. Different times then.
