Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Wesley, I wasn't able to get in touch with you since the summer of 2021, now I know why. I'll always love you & miss you, Wes. You've been in my heart since the early 1960s. I wish you had been in my life since then, but we drifted apart. Your love, devotion and memories are safe in my heart for eternity. I will always love you and miss you Wes. The 1st love of my life, Charlayne ❤️

“ Wesley, I've Loved you from the 1st time I met you in the Summer of '63. If my life had been different, I would have gladly and proudly married you like we planned when you got out of the Navy. Unfortunately, that didn't happen, but there has always been a heartfelt place deep in my heart for you since we met. I've tried to contact you for over 2 years in vein and just today saw you obituary. I have only good, happy memories with you and about you because you were the 1st love of my life. Rest in Peace my gentle angel and know 'I will always love you and miss you.' Your 1st love, Charlayne
